Plotting the Path: A Graduation Requirement Update from the Virginia Department of Education

with Marianne Moore, Transition Specialist, Office of Special Education Virginia Department of Education

Times are a'changing! Marianne Moore, Transition Specialist in the Office of Special Education Program improvement at the Virginia Department of Education, will update families about Virginia's high school graduation requirements. Get the latest about credit accommodations and the applied studies diploma as well as current information on the Profile of a Virginia Graduate.

Students with disabilities and their families need to understand how course selection and IEP team decisions about assessments in the early grades, middle school, and high school impact a student's diploma options. This free webinar is open to all parents, caregivers, youth, and professionals.

Please register at FormedFamiliesForward.org or call (703) 539-2904.

Open to all parents, caregivers, and professionals, though content will address issues of particular relevance to foster, adoptive and kinship families. Formed Families Forward offers training and support to foster, adoptive and kinship families raising children and youth with special needs.
