

FREE WEBINAR!

Getting to Work: The Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA) and Students with Disabilities

with Jean Steveson,
Director of Transition Services, Virginia DARS

Wednesday, March 15, 2017 ♦ 7:00-8:30 PM

Parents and caregivers of youth with disabilities face many challenges when helping their students prepare for adulthood and entering the workforce. Jean Steveson, Director of Transition Services with the Virginia Department for Aging and Rehabilitative Services, will explain the Workforce Innovation Opportunity Act (WIOA) and how it relates to students with disabilities. She will focus in particular on the Pre-Employment Transition Services (PreETS) available for teenagers who are DARS clients. Ms. Steveson has been a part of DARS for close to 30 years and will share her wealth of knowledge on transition services and DARS policy.

Register: www.FormedFamiliesForward.org

This free webinar is open to all, although content will address issues of particular relevance to foster, adoptive and kinship families. Please register at www.FormedFamiliesForward.org or call 703-539-2904 for more information.